Our Story Will Not End Well Without God

Say what you will, but America's current direction will not give us another 250 years, or even 25 years, if we don't defeat the communists who desire the ruination of our great nation. Practically speaking, there has never been a successful communist nation. Eventually the people revolt against total government control, AND lack of food, opportunity, safety.

I was fortunate in my earlier life to travel to many different countries, including Turkey, Brazil, England, Hong Kong, Argentina, Guatemala, and Germany. I happened to be in Berlin 6 months before the Wall fell and 6 months after. That one-year time frame clearly illustrated the difference between being told what to do and doing what you wanted to do. The laughter, kindness, and genuine affection for Americans can only be described as a far cry from Berliners' previous lives.

One of the first things despots do is remove God and religion from front and center. This is often done in the most horrific manner.

In November of 2025 a Nigerian Christian missionary named Fred Williams was quoted as saying "There are Christian communities that have been slaughtered. There are mass graves. While President Trump was making the announcement on Oct. 31st, killings went on, literally," Williams said. "So people in Plateau, people in Benue, people in Southern Kaduna, they have now learned to dig mass graves. And it's now the trend." This continues around the world in various communist nations.

Then there is education. What helped make America the greatest nation on earth has been replaced with various levels of WOKE ideology starting in the 1960s. Kids aren't learning math, reading and writing; they are watching "transgender" people perform.

Manhattan Institute points this out on their homepage, "Kids are very aggressive now in their views, and pushing kids to other views," one New York parent said of his child's school, adding that "if you're not with us, you're against us, and you're the problem. They are making my son feel like a racist because of the pigmentation of his skin," one mother said of her son's experience at a Los Angeles-area prep school. Teachers in North Carolina's Wake County Public School System, facing this kind of pushback, were told to ignore it as a sign of "white parents" finding it "hard to let go of power [and] privilege."

President Obama fanned the flames of racism throughout his term causing the hate and division so evident today.

Those of us who are older realize that without a classical education, millions of kids are growing up without the ability to think for themselves or comprehend the madness in our society. With the amazing opportunities available to every single citizen, the color of your skin makes little difference in what you can strive for and accomplish. It is only a tool to promote communism.

Rather than focus on the superficial, we need to return to encouraging every child to use their God-given talents to discover amazing new medicines, reach people with positive dialog and ideas, and become future leaders of freedom. Because if we don't, America will not survive.

It's strange to see our useless "news media" work so hard to destroy our great Country. They distract us with too much information about transgenderism (a psychotic breakdown if there ever was one), constant harping on racism, working overtime to destroy President Trump's amazing Administration. They no longer provide ALL the facts on any subject; only those they agree with. ABC, NBC and CNN went so far as to censor President Trump's recent speech about stopping fraud in our elections. They absolutely do not want any single citizen to think for themselves.

Communists want to control every aspect of society which means no matter how hard you work, what new and exciting ideas you discover, everyone receives equal shares of the benefits derived from your labor. You have no choices. Your neighborhood becomes a New York City-style disaster with homeless living on your streets. Oh, and you can no longer own your home. You cannot choose the schools for your children. You have absolutely no power over your life. And the only money you have is that which the government allows. You have NO control.

Our Declaration of Independence, Constitution, and Bill of Rights are instruments of freedom for the ages. They protect us and give us the liberty to use the gifts God gave us. I refuse to cede my soul to the government. I will fight to bring God back into our public lives, so we have guidance, protection and love that the government cannot contain. I would rather live in a society guided by the Ten Commandments, than a world dominated by soul-less communists.

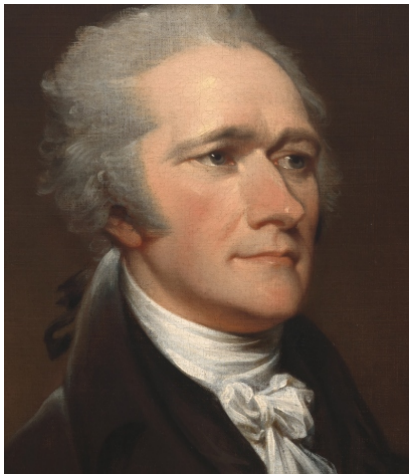

Are you with me?

President's Corner

Words of Wisdom from two very wise Presidents

We cannot buy our security, our freedom from the threat of the bomb by committing an immorality so great as saying to a billion human beings now enslaved behind the Iron Curtain, "Give up your dreams of freedom because to save our own skins, we're willing to make a deal with your slave masters."

ALEXANDER HAMILTON
January 11, 1755, or 1757
– July 12, 1804

Alexander Hamilton said, "A nation which can prefer disgrace to danger is prepared for a master and deserves one." New York City maybe? (Mamdami)

Now let's set the record straight. There is no argument over the choice between peace and war, but there's only one guaranteed way you can have peace - and you can have it in the next second - just surrender!

And finally, in a condensed version, Reagan also said: "Freedom is never more than one generation away from extinction. It has to be fought for and defended by each generation."

There is no sense beating a dead horse. This may be one of our final opportunities at turning things around by cleaning up our own yard first. You have the reins in your hand. By you looking the other way for reasons that will all expire if we lose our Control, you may end up the one looking for shelter, as so many are over the Socialist/Communist controlled world, besieged with loss of liberty, and rationed for food and equipment to the core.

May God fill us with wisdom before the doors are all closed!
God bless.

The Bright Report

Ormond Beach Needs Common Sense, Not a $48 Million Detour

Ormond Beach Needs Common Sense, Not a $48 Million Detour. Ormond Beach does not need a flashy new police station on the west side. It needs common sense.

That may sound blunt, but blunt is what this debate deserves. City leaders are asking residents to consider a $48 million bond to relocate the police station to an area of future development, all while tax pressures remain front and center. If the city is serious about fiscal responsibility, public safety, and serving the people who already live here, this is the wrong place to start.

Let's be honest: a "geographical center" sounds neat in a presentation, but public safety is not a geometry problem. Police resources should be positioned where they are needed most, not where a map makes them look balanced. If crime is more concentrated in the east side of Ormond Beach, then moving the police station farther west is not a solution — it is a retreat.

That is the part of this proposal that defies logic.

Residents in the neighborhoods with the greatest need should not be asked to accept slower access and reduced proximity in the name of a grand vision for undeveloped land. The city should not be building around what might happen someday while ignoring what is happening now.

Then there is the money. Officials may promise to keep millage flat, but bonds do not disappear just because they are wrapped in optimistic language. Debt is debt. A bond is a loan, and loans come with interest, repayment schedules, and long-term obligations that taxpayers eventually absorb. Calling the millage flat while layering on new borrowing is not restraint. It is financial camouflage.

And if Amendment 3 or any other tax shift changes the landscape, the sensible response is not to rush into new debt. It is to tighten priorities, preserve flexibility, and focus on essential services.

If the worst-case outcome is a lower millage rate, that is not a crisis. That is what fiscal discipline looks like. Ormond Beach does not need to impress itself with expensive construction plans. It needs to protect neighborhoods, maintain infrastructure, and spend money where the return is clear.

If a west-side police presence is truly needed, let that case be made with real evidence and a scaled approach.

But a $48 million relocation is a leap, not a plan. The city should choose practicality over prestige, and residents should demand nothing less.

Difference between socialism and communism

Socialism allows some private ownership and democratic reforms while communism seeks complete public ownership and a classless society through revolutionary change.

Core Principles

Socialism is an economic and political system where the means of production, distribution and key services are publicly or socially owned, but private property and enterprise can still exist. Its main goal is to reduce inequality and provide social welfare while often operating within a democratic framework, allowing citizens to participate in government and economic decision-making. Socialism emphasizes compensation based on individual contribution and can coexist with a market economy, as seen in modern social democracies like Sweden or Germany.

Communism, in contrast, is a more rigid ideology that aims for complete ownership of all property and resources, eliminating private property, profit, and social classes. It envisions a classless society where goods and services are distributed by need, summarized by Marx's principle. "From each according to his ability, to each according to his needs." Communism often requires a revolutionary overthrow of capitalism and relies on a strong, centralized state to enforce equality, historically exemplified by the Soviet Union and Maoist China.

Means of Implementation

Socialism. Achieved through gradual reforms, democratic processes, and social policies. It allows for flexibility and coexistence with private enterprise.

Communism. Typically envisioned as requiring a violent or radical revolution to dismantle capitalist structures and establish a full state-controlled economy.

Who Cares About Fraud?

Make no mistake about it, the actions of Democratic lawmakers screams that they could not care less about the fleecing of U.S. taxpayers — in large part because their party appears to be on the receiving end of the largess.

The Senate Homeland Security Committee held a hearing titled "Exposing Fraud in America." Chaired by Sen. Rand Paul (R-KY), the hearing focused on waste, abuse, and illegal activities within various federal programs and election systems and only one Democrat showed up. Briefly.

Sen. Gary Peters (D-MI), the ranking member on the committee, showed up for the hearing's opening statements, but apparently left before Paul addressed witnesses Nick Shirley, James O'Keefe and Dylan Hedtler-Gaudette.

Shirley has been instrumental in exposing hundreds of millions of dollars of fraud around the country, including the Somali daycare theft ring in Minnesota. Democrats dispute his efforts while members of the corrupt media have actually targeted him for daring to expose the fraud.

"When we talk about fraud, we are talking about money stolen from hardworking, law-abiding, taxpaying citizens," Shirley said at the hearing.

"This issue has nothing to do with political parties, because no dollar says Republican or Democrat on it," he added. "When a fraudster commits fraud, he or she steals from all of us. The worst part is that fraud affects the most vulnerable and needy, as they rely the most on government services."

Here's more from Shirley about the no-show Democrats: "Imagine this: you get paid by our tax dollars and you don't even show up to do your job when it involves our tax dollars being stolen. Wtf are these people doing in office if they don't even care about our money being stolen and wasted? They are simply working against us."

"Working against us" is an understatement, given today's Democratic Party. It's clear that they want the status quo to continue, but then, their goal all along has been to overwhelm and otherwise collapse the federal government. At taxpayer expense.

The only consistency here is that no one is ever held accountable.

The Way It REALLY Works

DHS moves to deny green cards to immigrants on welfare, scrapping Biden-era rule

The Department of Homeland Security issued a final rule rescinding a Biden-era regulation that had shielded green card applicants from scrutiny over their use of public benefits, restoring a broader “public charge” test that lets immigration officers weigh food stamps, Medicaid, and housing vouchers when deciding who gets permanent residence in the United States.

The change, first reported by the Daily Caller, takes effect September 18. Starting that date, USCIS will roll out a revised version of Form I-485, the application for adjustment of status. Older versions of the form filed on or after that date will be rejected outright.

Put plainly: if you want to live here permanently, the federal government will once again ask whether you can support yourself, and hold the answer against you if you can't. — Excerpt from TheFederalistTimes.com

Networks Exposed: ABC and NBC Refuse to Air Trump's Election Security Address – What Are They Hiding?

DHS Secretary Markwayne Mullin ripped into the biased legacy media for their blatant refusal to broadcast President Trump's primetime address on election integrity. While the President laid out hard facts on vulnerabilities, non-citizen registrations, and Biden-era cover-ups, ABC and NBC chose to sit on their hands.

Mullin nailed it: “Let's talk about the major networks not willing to carry the President of the United States address to the nation on election security. How shameful is that?! ABC and NBC not carrying that? Why? What are they trying to cover up?!”

He didn't stop there. “Why wouldn't they want to inform the American people? Why are they calling themselves a news outlet if they're not actually trying to put the news out there?”

The speech wasn't spin or re-litigation – though with everything exposed, Trump could easily do that. “The President was giving facts, what we have exposed, what the Biden administration covered up, what the intelligence community held from the American people, Congress, and the executive branch.”

Mullin hammered home the double standard: “And we're putting it out there, and yet two major networks didn't want to cover it. I think the question really should say why. Because they sure covered the other part of it when they were saying that it was the most secure election ever, what facts did they have? Because they didn't have facts. They were taking someone's word for it. President Trump gave facts!”

WOAH 🇺🇸 Investigative journalist Catherine Herridge reviewed the documents just released by the Trump Admin on election integrity and finds CIA emails showing they were working against Donald Trump to aid China and the Democrats in the 2020 election

“I've been digging into the documents already and I found this November 2020 email, and it specifically states, it's a conversation among intelligence officials, it specifically states that they have, quote, deliberately massaged one of our pending PDBs. That's the president's daily brief. To avoid any direct links to the election”

“This was a massive effort, what they call a multi-domain operation. That means trade, it means diplomacy, it means open-source information, it means social media. So all the levers of power China had to influence the US election”

And our own CIA worked to make sure the President wasn't aware of any of this information, they literally removed it from his daily briefing

Literally treason

“In the summer of 2020, as we're heading into the election, in the intelligence community there were indicators of this Chinese influence operation. Influence operations means that you're trying to affect the outcome of how people vote or their sentiment about a presidential candidate.

It's different than an interference operation, which is penetrating voting rolls and voter systems. And this whistleblower was raising the alarm about the influence operation, and then suddenly it all was suppressed”

“In some of their reports, there were in officials' own handwriting that they wanted everything out that could help President Trump in his reelection. So there was clear evidence of political and personal bias”

They wanted to remove EVERYTHING that could possibly help Trump win reelection

Again, literally treason

Also if you remember awhile back, a former CIA officer named Pedro Israel Orta who worked at the CIA during the Trump Administration said the CIA didn't even recognize him as the President, they wouldn't even put his picture up on the wall which was customary for all Presidents.

They were actively working against him.

Kelsey Grammer warns of chilling danger facing Americans who forget nation's founding history

The 'Frasier' star called for an education overhaul while pushing back against dismissing Founders as 'old White guys in wigs'

Actor Kelsey Grammer issued a warning about the state of American education, arguing that citizens who fail to learn the nation's founding history risk being manipulated.

Speaking on "Planet Tyrus" on July 21, 2026, Grammer called for an overhaul of the nation's education system while pushing back against critics who dismiss the Founding Fathers as "old White guys in wigs."

"If you don't know where you come from, you don't know who you are. If you don't know who you are, you can be controlled," Grammar warned.

"There's a whole bunch of things that just have got to stop with our educational system, and we've got to retool it. There's no question," he said.

Grammer recently starred in the film, "Young Washington," which follows the Founding Father before he became the nation's first president. Grammer also hosted the six-episode Fox Nation series "The Patriot War," narrating key points in the American Revolution ahead of the nation's 250th anniversary.

The former "Frasier" and "Cheers" actor said America's past serves as a blueprint for its future — one he believes many young people are dismissing.

Kelsey Grammer urges Americans to look to founding fathers for guidance as nation faces deep divisions

"Yeah, I'm pretty tired of the old White guy in [a] wig thing," Grammer told Tyrus. "I mean Thomas Jefferson was 33 when he wrote what is arguably the most important political document in the history of man," he said.

Grammer emphasized that the American Revolution was fought on radical ideas rather than identity and called for a stronger push to teach early American history.

"It never had anything to do with the way you looked," Grammer said. "It had everything to do with the way you thought and the way you dreamed, and that's all America."

He argued the Founding Fathers did not claim America would be perfect but envisioned an evolving quest for better.

"The land of the possible. Yeah, absolutely. It's always [going to] fall a little short, but that's just it. It's the world of becoming. We're becoming a more perfect union, always, rather than we just are one," Grammer said.

Grammer said that most of the 56 people who signed the Declaration of Independence "ended in ruin" by sacrificing everything for the nation. He added, "Some of their children were murdered, some of their wives were raped," and said their spirit of resilience in hard times remains today.

"They paid the ultimate sacrifice, the ultimate one. And they would probably do it again. And I think that sort of character is what still is in most of us. I believe in America that way," Grammer said.

Seven Million Biden Voters Died Between Nov. 2020 & Nov. 2024: Where Are The Bodies?

July 17, 2026 by DianeLGruber

NOTE: This graph was created before all the votes were counted. In total: Trump received 76,917,038 and Harris received 74,441,439.

President Trump's speech last night (7-16-2026) was rumored to include details about how Democrats rigged the 2020 presidential election. Check the stats in this article.

Does anyone REALLY believe that demented Biden, who spent the entire 2020 campaign in his basement, received 16 Million MORE votes than the Messiah, Obama, in 2012, AND 16 Million more than Queen Hillary in 2016? Anyone? Anyone?

'Islamic Takeover': Social media erupts over Home Depot action ~ — Bob Unruh | WorldNetDaily.com

Today that city (Dearborn, MI) has an Arab majority, Arab police officers, Arab elected officials and holidays that are linked to events that have no history in America.

A recent report from Michigan News Source pointed out its Muslim mayor, Abdullah Hammoud, "told a Christian he's not welcome in the city," the Muslim police chief "bragged about how a large increase in the number of Arab police officers was better serving the city and ended his boast with a Muslim prayer," and the city renamed a part of a street in honor of a resident "who Islamic watchdog groups say celebrated Middle Eastern terrorists."

But what has social media aflame this week is a decision by Home Depot, that all-American home appliance and improvement company, to post store signage ... in Arabic.

Online was the video documentation.

Before Putin, the Holodomor Was Stalin's Genocide Against Ukraine

But hardly anyone in the outside world knew of the horror that was being inflicted upon Ukraine, in part because Western foreign correspondents generally didn't want to run afoul of Stalin and risk being kicked out of the Soviet Union, as historian Anne Applebaum wrote in this 2017 Atlantic article. The New York Times correspondent Walter Duranty, who won a Pulitzer Prize in 1932 for his coverage, relied upon Stalin's regime as his primary source of information, and actually insisted in March 1933 that there was no famine (The New York Times has since repudiated his reporting). Welsh journalist Gareth Jones, who saw the deprivation firsthand by taking an unauthorized walking tour of Ukraine in 1933, actually was derided by his peers for trying to make the terrible truth known.

The famine was a forbidden subject in the Soviet Union, which suppressed its own 1937 census and arrested and executed officials who had organized it, in an effort to conceal the massive loss of life.

"With communism, everything turns to sh*t!" Trump said during a rally Wednesday night 7/22 in Marietta, Georgia. "It's true. Terrible thing," he said before telling the cheering crowd that first lady Melania Trump doesn't approve of him using foul language.

The Georgia crowd, on the other hand, ate it up with cheers and applause
