Minnesota Gov. Walz is an Idiot, and the people ...

You might have heard through the grapevine that something you wouldn't wish on your worst enemy is going on in Minnesota. It involves Governor (Tampon Tim) Walz, a member of Congress, and some of the 80,000 Somalis who live there. Little bits and pieces of the story have managed to see the light, but apart from the shock and horror of the first few headlines, the story continues to languish in limbo as our once-vaunted media do their best to ignore and/or cover it up.

Have you guessed what it is yet? "Someone" took "some money" from the government for child care for the Somali "immigrants."

According to a November 2025 story in the New York Post, "Millions of dollars in taxpayer money stolen as part of a series of massive Minnesota welfare fraud schemes may have been funneled to Somalia-based terror group al-Shabab, according to a report.

"The radical Islamic terror group, which is a longstanding ally of al Qaeda and considered a threat to US interests, has likely been the beneficiary of money stolen in a spate of scams and sent to Somalia by the criminals defrauding the North Star State, City Journal reported Wednesday, citing federal counterterrorism sources.

"This is a third-rail conversation, but the largest funder of al-Shabab is the Minnesota taxpayer," a source who worked on a federal investigation into Minnesotans attempting to join overseas terror groups, told the outlet. There is an issue here that is real, and if there is ever an event that is traceable back to these funds, or to people from this area, then this situation will take on a whole new set of optics," the source warned.

"Former fraud investigator Kayesh Magan, a Somali-American who had worked in the Minnesota Attorney General's Office, noted in an op-ed last year that it is "uncomfortable and true" that "nearly all of the defendants" in several Minnesota fraud cases, including Feeding Our Future, "are from my community. The Somali community."

David Gaither, a former Republican Minnesota state senator, believes state Democrats and the media have ignored fraud being perpetrated by members of the state's large and politically influential Somali community, which has made the problem worse.

"The media does not want to put a light on this," Gaither told City Journal. "And if you're a politician, it's a significant disadvantage for you to alienate the Somali community. If you don't win the Somali community, you can't win Minneapolis. And if you don't win Minneapolis, you can't win the state. End of story."

Minnesota's largest newspaper, the Minneapolis Star Tribune, has apparently decided the debacle involving billions of taxpayer dollars is a nothingburger. But independent journalists are exposing the outrageous thefts every day. In a post on X, Nick Shirley reports: "This is a prime example of the BILLIONS of dollars in fraud happening right now in Minnesota, this is one of the hundreds of "daycares" receiving millions of dollars from the government, this daycare (that can't even spell learning right) received $1,900,000 in tax exempt funding from CCAP in 2025. This is just one of the 1,000's of fraudulent businesses operating in Minnesota."

The lifestyle and practices of the Somali "immigrants" are the antithesis of American life. Matt Walsh on X comments, "Remember, folks. White South Africans don't belong in South Africa even after 400 years. White Americans are invaders in America, even after 500 years. But the third-world illegal immigrant who got here last Tuesday is just as American as anyone else, and if you call him an invader, you are a racist."

Deterring the discussion is the fear that you will be called a racist if you dare to complain. Walz doesn't want to alienate the Somalis in Minnesota, so he allows them to steal taxpayer dollars and send that money back to Somalia. I have a better idea. Stand up, Minnesotans! Demand that every single government employee, including Gov. Walz, complicit in this massive theft, be found, prosecuted, and punished. And get that money back where it belongs.

Trey Gowdy Responds ... to a Stupid Question

December 31, 1969 7:00 pm

Washington Watch

Chronicle reader John Wayne Parrish sent along this from former SC Congressman Trey Gowdy. He was responding to a question from a CNN reporter about the ban of transgender individuals from the armed forces. As Gowdy does well, he nailed it succinctly, Parrish said.

Question; how can President Trump claim to represent all US citizens, regardless of sexual orientation, when he banned transgenders from joining the military? Isn't that discrimination?

Tray Gowdy's response: "Nobody has a right to serve in the military. Nobody! What makes you people think the Military is an equal opportunity employer? It is very far from it – and for good reasons – let me cite a few."

"The Military uses prejudice regularly and consistently to deny citizens from joining for being too old or too young, too fat or too skinny, too tall or too short. Citizens are denied for having flat feet, or for missing or additional fingers." He went on to explain, "by the way, poor eyesight will disqualify you, as well as bad teeth. Malnourished? Drug addiction? Bad back? Criminal history? Low IQ? Anxiety? Phobias? Hearing damage? Six arms? Your voices in your head? Self identification as a unicorn? Need a special access ramp for your wheelchair?"

"Can't run the required course in the required time? Can't do the required number of push-ups? Not really a morning person? And refuse to get out of bed before noon? All can be legitimate reasons for denial.

"The Military has one job: winning war. Anything else is a distraction and a liability. Did someone just scream, 'that isn't fair?' War is very unfair, there are no exceptions made for being special or challenged or socially wonderful. "You must change yourself to meet Military standards and not the other way around.

"I say again: you don't change the Military – you must change yourself. The Military is not about being fair, it is about taking advantage of others and about winning.

"The Military doesn't need to accommodate anyone with special issues. The Military needs to win wars and keep our country safe!

"If any of your personal issues are a liability that distract from readiness or lethality... Thank you for applying and good luck in future endeavors."

"Any other questions?"

BEWARE: The Florida Live Local Act

The Florida Live Local Act, signed into law in 2023, aims to incentivize affordable housing development by allowing developers to bypass certain local regulations if a portion of their project is designated for affordable housing.

How does the Florida Live Local Act affect Ormond Beach? Per the August 2025 analysis, done for the city:

• Ormond Beach must authorize Live Local Act developments of multi-family and mixed-use residential in any area zoned for commercial, industrial, or mixed-use, affordable housing.

• City staff approval for Live Local Act development projects is required. These requests DO NOT go before the City Commission or the City's Planning Board for commercial, industrial, or mixed uses for consideration.

• The highest density allowed in the city, 32 units per acre, is the density permitted for Live Local Act developments. This could increase the City's population by 187,848 residents.

• A City may not restrict the height below the highest allowed for either commercial or residential development within the jurisdiction. The maximum height allowed in Ormond Beach is 75 feet.

• The Live Local Act states developers can qualify for a 75% property tax exemption if they rent 40% of units to people whose annual household income is greater than 80% but not more than 120% of the median annual adjusted gross income for households within the metropolitan statistical area and the units that serve households below 80 percent AMI receive a 100% property tax exemption.

• Based upon average rent rates in Ormond Beach, the City would lose at least 75% and up to 100% of expected property tax revenue from Live Local Act developments.

Some of the key provisions of the Live Local Act are Affordable Housing Incentives:

• The Act allows developers to circumvent local zoning and land use regulations if at least 40% of the units in a project are set aside for households earning 120% or less of the Area Median Income (AMI). This enables higher density and building heights than typically permitted.

• The Act includes property tax exemptions for newly constructed multifamily developments that meet specific affordability criteria.

• Streamlined Approval Process: Projects qualifying under the Live Local Act can be administratively approved without the need for extensive local board reviews, expediting the development process.

• In May 2025, Senate Bill 1730 was passed to make clear and boost the implementation of the Live Local Act. In conclusion, the Live Local Act represents a momentous modification in Florida's approach to "affordable" housing, aiming to facilitate the construction through various incentives and streamlined processes. All of which the DEVELOPER and/or PROPERTY OWNER appears to benefit.

Whereas the residents lose all voice in what happens in their city, since the process gives CITY STAFF the ONLY voice in the approval process. As this law continues to change, it remains crucial for all interested parties to stay informed about its provisions and implications for our local communities. — Jennifer Bright,

Candidate for Ormond Beach City Council - Zone 2

Rep. Donalds: Trump Economy Boosts Wages, Buying Power

Republicans should focus on the positive signs that the economy is improving, including energy costs, inflation, and wage gains, while also working to overhaul the nation's healthcare insurance plans, Rep. Byron Donalds said on Sunday.

"Gas prices are down, energy prices are coming down, inflation's under control," the Florida Republican said in a televised interview.

This leaves families feeling that they have more purchasing power than they did during former President Joe Biden's administration, he added.

Donalds also pointed to a newly released report showing the nation's gross domestic product is now at 4.2%, saying it came in above estimates and could influence the Federal Reserve's path on interest rates.

"That's going to give the Federal Reserve, I think, more data in order to continue to cut rates," Donalds said.

He said lower rates could reduce borrowing costs for Americans trying to buy a home, refinance, or finance major purchases like a vehicle.

The Florida Republican, who is also running for governor, said the message should be that middle-and working-income families can stretch their dollars further when inflation is lower and wages rise.

The interview later turned to healthcare, with the host noting that certain Affordable Care Act-related subsidies were set to expire this week and that Florida could be among the states hit hardest by the change.

Donalds said he does not see a short-term subsidy extension as the solution, calling instead for a broad overhaul of the Affordable Care Act's structure and regulations.

"Before you even talk about subsidies, we have to do a complete overhaul of the Affordable Care Act," Donalds said.

He described exchange coverage as too expensive and blamed Democrats for a system he said benefits health insurance companies, saying subsidies flow to insurers while mandates and regulations drive up costs.

Donalds said he wants subsidy dollars redirected into health savings accounts for consumers, allowing individuals to pay for care more directly rather than sending federal money to insurers.

He also backed ideas that President Donald Trump has promoted, including a "most favored nation" approach to prescription drug pricing and expanded association health plans that would allow small business owners and independent contractors to band together to purchase coverage at lower rates.

"Subsidies are not going to solve this problem," Donalds said, adding that government support can push prices higher.

He acknowledged that Republicans face political pressure on the issue, with some House members in competitive races and disagreements within the party over how to proceed.

Still, Donalds said it will be up to Republicans returning to Washington to unite around a plan that addresses underlying costs rather than temporary fixes.

Fed Up with Islam, James Woods Issues Savage Statement That Will Offend Every Muslim on Earth, But Could Give Hope to Everyone Else

— Samuel Short December 18, 2025 at 12:36pm

Western Civilization needs to have an honest conversation about Islam after Sunday's deadly shooting at Australia's Bondi Beach, as it is by no means a stand-alone affair.

Actor James Woods is someone who realizes this, as his Wednesday post on social media platform X showed. Woods noted that the shooters that day in Sydney, Australia, targeted Jews celebrating Hanukkah.

He also pointed to the genocide of Christians taking place in Nigeria.

The common thread, he pointed out, is Islamic terrorists.

"It isn't just about who is being killed," Woods wrote. "It's more about who's doing the killing. It is, of course, Islamic terrorism. The jihad to eradicate 'infidels' and occupy their nations is in full swing.

"The only way to stop it is to state the facts out loud. And the facts are that Islam is a plague intent on ending any semblance of civilization as the enlightened world now knows it."

Woods is absolutely correct: These terrorists are not fringe actors or radicals; these are people following the dogma found in the Quran, which is clear in its call for Muslims to use violence in furtherance of their cause.

We do not have to live like this.

We do not have to keep importing and tolerating a flood of violent barbarians who have no interest in Western notions of tolerance.

Our systems and our outlook stand only as a means to power for the Muslim world.

The great Russian dissident Aleksandr Solzhenitsyn spent eight years in the Gulag prison system for daring to speak out against Joseph Stalin. He once prophetically said, "One man who stopped lying could bring down a tyranny."

Woods is one of those men.

The Religion of Peace counts almost 2,000 attacks by Muslims across nearly 50 countries, with over 13,000 dead and over 6,000 injured in 2025 alone.

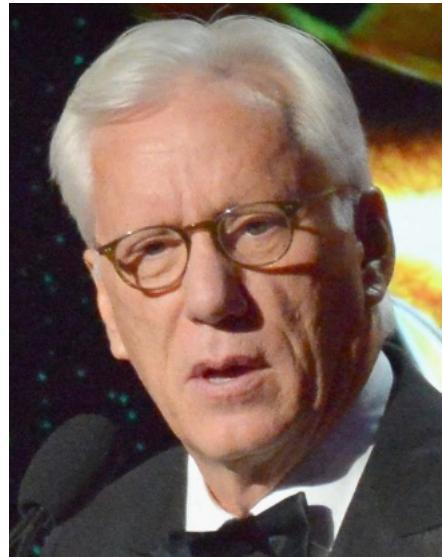

It is time to stop this.

Millions are waking up. The Western world cannot tolerate these people any longer. We cannot afford to import people whose toxic politics masquerade as a faith.

That'll offend every Muslim there, but it will also be a relief and give hope to many non-Muslims.

Trump Smacks EU with Official Declaration Saying Their Freeloading Days 'Are Over'

A sweeping statement from the White House outlining President Donald Trump's "America First" national security strategy says Europe can either change or rot.

"The days of the United States propping up the entire world order like Atlas are over," the 29-page document states, in bracingly direct language. "We count among our many allies and partners dozens of wealthy, sophisticated nations that must assume primary responsibility for their regions and contribute far more to our collective defense."

The strongly worded document reframes the U.S. role in the world and rejects the globalist model.

"After the end of the Cold War, American foreign policy elites convinced themselves that permanent American domination of the entire world was in the best interests of our country. Yet the affairs of other countries are our concern only if their activities directly threaten our interests," the document states.

It contends Europe's problems are deeper than "insufficient military spending and economic stagnation," attributing its declining share of global GDP to "national and transnational regulations that undermine creativity and industriousness."

"The larger issues facing Europe include activities of the European Union and other transnational bodies that undermine political liberty and sovereignty, migration policies that are transforming the continent and creating strife, censorship of free speech and suppression of political opposition, cratering birthrates, and loss of national identities and self-confidence," the document states.

And some sentences are damning.

"Should present trends continue, the continent will be unrecognizable in 20 years or less," it states. "As such, it is far from obvious whether certain European countries will have economies and militaries strong enough to remain reliable allies."

It was not well received by European officials.

"It's a frontal attack on the European Union," Brando Benifei, an Italian member of the European Parliament, said, according to The New York Times.

The report is "totally unacceptable," full of "extreme, shocking phrases," he said, alleging some sections call for election interference.

Johann Wadephul, Germany's foreign minister, said he does not "believe that we need to get advice here from any country or party," the newspaper reported.

He said the U.S. is a NATO ally, but "questions like freedom of expression, freedom of opinion and how we organize our liberal society here in the Federal Republic of Germany are not part of that."

Ian Lesser, who heads the Brussels office of the German Marshall Fund, a Washington-based nonprofit "committed to the idea that the United States and Europe are stronger together," said the document "treats Europe as a sort of other, one that is a model of what not to do," he said, according to The New York Times.

But Trump's document is unapologetic.

"American diplomacy should continue to stand up for genuine democracy, freedom of expression, and unapologetic celebrations of European nations' individual character and history," it states.

And it contains a stark warning for Europeans and the consequences of immigration.

"Over the long term, it is more than plausible that within a few decades at the latest, certain NATO members will become majority non-European. As such, it is an open question whether they will view their place in the world, or their alliance with the United States, in the same way as those who signed the NATO charter," it states.

Goals for Europe include "Enabling Europe to stand on its own feet and operate as a group of aligned sovereign nations, including by taking primary responsibility for its own defense, without being dominated by any adversarial power" and "Cultivating resistance to Europe's current trajectory within European nations."

The document also contains cautionary language about an explosive topic in a section titled, "The Era of Mass Migration Is Over."

"Who a country admits into its borders — in what numbers and from where — will inevitably define the future of that nation. Any country that considers itself sovereign has the right and duty to define its future. Throughout history, sovereign nations prohibited uncontrolled migration and granted citizenship only rarely to foreigners, who also had to meet demanding criteria," the document states.

The West's experience over the past decades vindicates this enduring wisdom. In countries throughout the world, mass migration has strained domestic resources, increased violence and other crime, weakened social cohesion, distorted labor markets, and undermined national security. The era of mass migration must end.

MURDER MASQUERADE AS MEDICINE SENATE IGNORES BILL ON CCP'S CHRISTIAN ORGAN HARVESTING

A bill aimed at curbing the Chinese Communist Party's (CCP) forced organ harvesting of cultural and religious minorities, including Christians, has "languished" in committee for seven months as Senate leaders have failed to act.

Republican New Jersey Rep. Christopher Smith, sponsor of the legislation that passed the House with a nearly unanimous vote, told the Daily Caller about the growing threat to Christians in China and the real consequences of delaying Senate action.

H.R. 1503, the Stop Forced Organ Harvesting Act of 2025, is not Smith's first attempt to confront the practice. A 2023 version of the bill passed the House 413-2 before dying in the same place the current bill now sits: the Senate Committee on Foreign Relations.

Smith chaired his first hearing on forced organ harvesting in 1998, hearing testimony from Chinese security officials. While the practice was once limited in scope, it exploded into a billion-dollar state enterprise following the CCP's 1999 crackdown on Falun Gong.

Falun Gong, a spiritual practice drawing on Buddhist and Taoist traditions and once widely embraced in China, was the primary early target. (RELATED: Republican Leaders Turn To Christ To Guide Policy On Islamic Countries)

Because practitioners abstain from tobacco and alcohol, they were considered ideal harvesting candidates, with the average age of those executed and immediately harvested being 28, Smith said.

David Matas and David Kilgour recorded from an undercover conversation they had with a Chinese doctor, as recorded in "Bloody Harvest: The Killing of Falun Gong for Their Organs."

"The supply of organs we have, we have every day. We do them every day," the doctor responded.

"We want fresh, alive ones," Matas and Kilgour asked.

"They are all alive, all alive," the doctor reassured.

"I heard some come from those who practice Falun Gong, those who are very healthy," Matas and Kilgour said.

"Yes, we have. I can't talk clearly to you over the phone," the doctor said, before inviting whom he believed was a potential buyer to visit in person.

In a 2024 written testimony, researcher Ethan Gutmann estimated that annual victims may number between 25,000 and 50,000, suggesting as many as 175,000 victims even under lower estimates.

Officials-turned-witnesses testified in Smith's hearings that they personally harvested organs from living patients to maximize quality. Smith said the motive goes beyond profit, serving the party's pursuit of practical immortality.

When a member of the CCP's totalitarian leadership needs an organ, prisoners' medical records are searched. If a match is found, the individual is killed for the benefit of the party — or, more accurately, the men running it, Smith said. Smith cited a September hot-mic exchange between Russian President Vladimir Putin and Chinese leader Xi Jinping discussing harvesting in this manner.

"Earlier, people rarely lived to 70, but these days at 70 you are still a child," Xi said through a translator, according to The Epoch Times.

"As biotechnology advances, human organs can be continuously transplanted, allowing us to become younger and younger, perhaps even achieve immortality," Putin reportedly replied.

Smith called the practice "murder masquerading as medicine."

DWS claims America 'can't afford' to spend millions deporting illegal aliens

A Democrat congresswoman shifted from failing to flailing on illegal aliens as she attempted to drop a new spin on expenses and what it means to be "America First."

On top of restoring affordability and tackling rampant waste, fraud and abuse while negotiating for peace across the globe, President Donald Trump has made restoring American national sovereignty a top priority of his second administration.

Having spent much of 2025 protesting Trump's mass deportations, including a government shutdown tied to funding health care for illegal aliens, House Democratic Steering Committee chair Florida Rep. Debbie Wasserman Schultz angled for her party to redefine "America First" while insisting booting foreign nationals costs more money than it saves.

Appearing on MS Now in a clip highlighted by the X account Western Lensman, the congresswoman argued, "Trump's most popular issue is immigration and ... the undocumented immigration that he says is a violent threat to our nation when most people who they are deporting are not criminals and are simply here — who are being rounded up — two weekends ago they rounded up 200 people just by stopping lawn care trucks in the neighborhood right near my own home."

"Is that who we fear in this country? Or is it that we want to make sure that we keep this country safe and that we can focus on — America First to me means taking care of people at home and making life affordable when it comes to rent, and healthcare, and utilities and insuring that they, Americans, can keep the better life that they deserve," she went on, "not have Trump go after people and waste millions of dollars, hundreds of millions of dollars deporting people from this country."

As the X account suggested, "Democrats spent untold billions importing, housing, feeding and catering to millions of illegals and now want to tell you it just costs too darn much to send them back. Unreal. GTFOOH with this garbage, [Wasserman Schultz]."

Beyond the absurd attempt to further defend open borders policies that advance the opioid epidemic, facilitate violent crimes against citizens that otherwise would not happen, perpetuate the traffic of people — including children — and leave the nation at risk from potential terrorist attacks in the name of cheap labor, it was clear to many that the pitch from the congresswoman was a desperate reach in messaging in defense of a losing argument.

"Democrats claiming they are better at America First is an acknowledgment they're losing the persuasion argument. Their home turf and comfort zone is to completely reject the term 'America First' in favor of globalism," the X account IT Guy responded, while another account contended amid mockery of Wasserman Schulz's style, "According to the world's first talking poodle, it's OK to spend billions on processing, housing, feeding and educating criminal aliens, but it's a 'waste of money' to deport them, and open up all that housing, employment, education and assistance to struggling Americans."

Thanks to President Trump, Christmas has returned to Bethlehem! And, he has yet to win a Nobel Peace Prize. Beyond comprehension! Just think about that for one moment. Because of a "bold American" President, Christians are now finally celebrating Christmas in that "little town of Bethlehem" - where Jesus was born 2,000 years ago!

My, how things have changed since Trump took office almost a year ago - not only in our beloved United States of America - but in all parts of the world, including Bethlehem, Israel. In 1922, Christians made up 11% of the entire population in Palestinian Authority-controlled regions. Today, they account for less than 1%. In Gaza, the Christian population has dropped from 5,000 before Hamas seized power in 2007 to just 1,000 as of October 2023. Bethlehem's plight mirrors these same trends. In 1948 (when Israel became an "Official State"), Christians represented 86% of the entire population in Bethlehem and its surrounding villages.

Today, that number has dwindled to a staggering 10%!!! And, I honestly think that number is over-exaggerated. I think it is more like 3-5% Christian today! The survival of Bethlehem's Christian community depends heavily on tourism. Yet, with no tourists visiting, the community faces an uncertain future, struggling to sustain itself in increasingly difficult conditions.

And, in 2019 & 2022, I visited Israel and Bethlehem on 2 amazing trips, and when I went to visit Bethlehem both times, I was astounded at the number of Arabs and so many non-Christians there. I hardly saw any Christians back then when I made my way to "the little town where Baby Jesus was born". Other than the Church of the Holy Sepulcher, I only saw some Christians in the "Tourist Gift Shops" (which were quite expensive).

But, as far as seeing Christians actually living and working in Bethlehem, that's a rare sighting. And just think, that's where Jesus was born - founder & Creator of Christianity. What a disappointing slap in the face to all Christians.

I believe in America ...

Just to clear the air: I'm a MAGA conservative, but that doesn't mean what a lot of you apparently think it does. Let's break it down, because I'm tired of being told what I believe and what I stand for. Spoiler: not every conservative is the same, but most of us I know share these same principles.

1. I believe America should never depend on another country for energy, protection, or basic supply and demand. We are strongest when we build, produce, and protect things right here in the USA.

2. I believe America must put itself first. We cannot pour from an empty cup. Our country should prioritize our own people before trying to save the world.

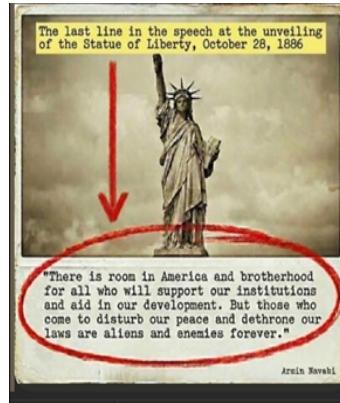

3. I believe America should stay out of endless foreign conflicts. We are not the world's sugar daddy, and we shouldn't act like it.

4. I believe no foreign aid should be given until every veteran at home is taken care of.

5. I believe immigrants make America stronger — when they come legally. If your first act in this country is breaking the law, you aren't an upstanding citizen.

6. You can marry who you want. I may not agree with your lifestyle, but your life is not mine to judge, I leave that to God Almighty. That being said, I am a Christian and suggest everyone read and follow God's word.

7. I believe men are men and women are women. Surgery or hormones don't change that. Men should use men's bathrooms, and women should use women's bathrooms.

8. I believe schools are for education, not indoctrination. Kids should learn math, history, reading, and science - not political propaganda. They should not be taught they were "born in the wrong body" or pushed into gender delusion.

9. I believe America is in a mental health crisis. Mental health care is real, it matters, and it desperately needs to be addressed.

10. I believe guns aren't the problem - people are. Gun control only infringes on constitutional rights. But I also believe in common sense: background checks are necessary to keep firearms out of the hands of the mentally ill.

I'm a conservative because I believe in faith, family, freedom, and personal responsibility. I don't want a government that controls every aspect of our lives - I want a government that protects our rights, secures our borders, defends our freedoms, and then gets out of the way. We are strongest when Americans take care of America first, when families are supported, when our veterans are honored, and when our children are given truth, not propaganda. I love this country, and I believe it's worth fighting for.

May God bless you and yours!

The United States Supreme Court laid out the requirements for birthright U.S. citizenship in 1898. The first requirement is a person's parents must be in this country legally and the second requirement is that they have a legal residence within the United States at the time of their birth.

Every person who DOES NOT meet those 2 requirements IS NOT a citizen of the United States.

A Totally Disenchanted Democrat ...

A TOTALLY DISENCHANTED DEMOCRAT SENT THIS TO ME. TRY TO PUNCH HOLES IN THIS! These facts speak volumes about the DNC.

The woman who researched and wrote this lives in Sedona and is a retired lawyer. She writes in simple language as a former Democrat to all Democrats in general:

Democrats –

Now I know you don't like President Trump. That's a given, SO let's move on from that.

How about the division of America. Do you really blame Trump for that? How about when NONE of the DEMOCRATS showed up for his inauguration? Don't you think that started the division? He hadn't even been president yet, and EXCEPT for Clinton and Obama, not one Democrat showed up. Is that when Trump divided America? Can you imagine if the REPUBLICANS didn't show up for Obama's inauguration because they lost? Can you even start to imagine what would have happened?

How about when 19 minutes after Trump was inaugurated, the Washington Post declared the IMPEACHMENT CAMPAIGN has STARTED? Was that when Trump divided America?

How about when Nancy Pelosi ripped up Trump's state of the union right in front of the world, showing complete disrespect for the President of the United States? Did that bring the country together and is THAT when Trump divided America?

How about when America had to endure 3 years and over 30 million dollars spent on trying to PROVE that Trump only won because of RUSSIAN COLLUSION and NOT because America voted him in. And 17 democrats did EVERYTHING in their power to PROVE that there was Russian Collusion. and came up with ZERO? Was THAT when Trump divided America?

I can't even start to go over the NEGATIVE PRESS he's received since his surprise win. Remember, the DONORS, the likes of Bloomberg, who gave 27 million, Tom Steyer who gave 17 million, George Soros who gave 9 million and MANY MORE that gave MULTI-MILLIONS to Hillary, wanted a return on their investment. Do you really think that donors give MILLIONS UPON MILLIONS just because they love Hillary? NO, these weren't campaign donations, they were INVESTMENTS into what HILLARY had promised them when she became President. They were so sure she would win and they would be SHOWERED with HUGE RETURNS, and when it didn't happen and they LOST all those millions, they went all out to TAKE TRUMP out of OFFICE by any means possible.

DID YOU KNOW that 90% of the Mainstream media and the corporations that own them, are owned by or run by BIG DEMOCRAT DONORS? You can verify all of that for yourselves. I did. Since the moment Trump won, even before he was inaugurated, the mainstream media's reporting was 92% negative on Trump, do you know why? It was those big donors that lost their dream of MILLIONS of dollars, on their returns that they were going to receive when Hillary was President and they weren't going to take that loss lightly. They needed to PUNISH TRUMP and those that VOTED HIM IN.

I've said this since the night he was elected. "There is NOTHING the left won't do to take down our President", our country and us, no low they won't go to, to get their power back", and sadly, we have seen this every single day since his election.

Let me ask you this. Have you ever listened to Trump or appreciated any accomplishment or campaign promises he's kept, have you ever gone to one of his rallies or have you just closed your mind to anything he does? Please ask yourselves the following questions, if you dare.

What has Joe Biden done for America for the last 47 years that he's held an office?

What did Joe Biden ever do for BLACKS when HE and Obama were in office?

What has Joe Biden ever done in his entire life to create a private-sector job?

What has Joe Biden done to help the American middle class worker?

Let me also ask you this. Why do you think there are so many people tearing down statues, burning our flag, beating up police officers, disrespecting our founders and hating our country? It comes straight from our SCHOOLS that have slowly been tearing down our history. If there is a teacher out there, please tell me the following:

A Totally Disenchanted Democrat ...

Do you teach the truth that it was the DEMOCRATS that were the KKK?

That the GRAND LEADER of the KKK was Robert Byrd, who was elected to Congress as a DEMOCRAT and served for decades, and that it was Hillary, Bill, and Obama that gave his EULOGY praising him?

That the DEMOCRATS fought the Civil war to KEEP SLAVERY? That the inner-city ghettos were created by DEMOCRATS to keep control of slaves after they were freed?

That planned parenthood was founded in inner cities to CONTROL the BLACK POPULATION? Is any of this in your history books?

Let me ask you this as well: Can a student speak up when he/she disagrees with a teacher when they say that Trump is a horrible President or the electoral college has to be eliminated? I don't think so? Well, I know a student that actually happened to. When the teacher said it had to be eliminated because Hillary lost, and he stated the reason it should stay, she ripped him apart and gave the entire class a 5 hour test, and stated it was because he DARED to disagree with her. Is that happening in your schools?

I'm only asking questions. I'd like your answers.

President Trump and his entire family has been vilified, demeaned and disrespected, for one reason and one reason only. HE WON.

Have you noticed the DEMOCRATS only throw tantrums and OBJECT to everything he does and have NEVER ONCE gotten behind him to make America the best it can be? WHY? They can't afford to get behind him. He would WIN AGAIN, and they can't let that happen. If he wins again, the Democrat party will be destroyed and they know it.

Did you notice that the "CAGES" the left claimed that Trump built to put Illegal children in, WERE BUILT BY OBAMA for the very purpose of PUTTING ILLEGAL CHILDREN IN? Was THAT all over the news when Obama did it? The very same "CAGES," but the media was silent!

How about when Trump commuted Roger Stone's sentence, and was DEMONIZED 24/7 but NOT A WORD when Obama commuted 1,715 inmates, which included 330 that he granted on his last day in office. DID WE EVEN HEAR one WORD about it?

Were there reporters even reporting it. NO! Just look at the difference in the reporting. By the way, since Trump's been in office he's commuted 10 people. Compare that to Obama. Is that reporting fair?

How about when Biden and Obama allowed the H1N1, the SWINE FLU, to INFECT MILLIONS of Americans before declaring it a health emergency. Was the press losing its minds and calling it the OBAMA FLU AND BLAMING OBAMA and BIDEN for the spread? —— SILENCE!

Compare this to the NEGATIVE COVERAGE that Trump got when he immediately halted travel from China. Then, in February, Nancy Pelosi went to Chinatown and said come on down, or when DeBlasio, in March, said ride the subways and go to Broadway. BUT those same people are blaming Trump for the spread of coronavirus.

A FINAL QUESTION:

What have the DEMOCRATS done to help make America the best, to get behind a president that works tirelessly to care about WE THE PEOPLE instead of using us as political pawns? What have the democrats done for people of color EXCEPT for GIVING ILLEGALS more rights than citizens and having us pay for it?

JUST imagine what this country could accomplish if the Democrats worked with him on the economy, the coronavirus, the inner cities where he's created opportunity zones, job training etc. When Trump tried to get school choice for inner-city students they ran Betsy Devos out!! The democrats running those inner city schools wanted no part of school choice. Have you ever wondered why it's cities that have been run, for decades, that have the MOST HOMELESS, the MOST CRIME, the most MURDERS, the worst INNER CITY schools, ARE ALL RUN BY DEMOCRATS?

If you haven't started asking yourselves those questions, maybe you should. As I said, my entire family used to be Democrats, but NOT ONE will ever vote for a Democrat again. They asked themselves the same questions and the answer was clear.
