ONE NATION UNDER GOD WITH LIBERTY AND JUSTICE FOR ALL

Why Do We Accept Double Standards?

One of the greatest things about America is the guarantee of equality under the law, something the citizens of most countries in the world have never enjoyed. Our Founding Fathers created the greatest guideline to a free and open society through the Constitution and Bill of Rights. But we don't have those rights anymore, do we? Can you imagine what would happen if we conducted our lives the way the liberal elites conduct theirs?

It must have started with little things we didn't notice on the way to the inequality of our lives today. It is so blatant that it's impossible to ignore. Justice Kavanaugh was put through the proverbial wringer during his confirmation hearing on the word of just one person. He was humiliated in front of the world in every way possible. Yet, as of today, eight women have come forward to tell what happened to them at the hands of a very elite man: NY Governor Andrew Cuomo. Our Vice President, Kamala Harris, said this, 'I believe them, and I respect them being able to tell their story and having the courage to do it' but hasn't said a peep about Cuomo or other accused sexual degenerates, most notably Joe Biden.

President Donald J. Trump continues to be tortured even after his presidency was stolen from us. Now his income taxes are being given the line-by-line treatment so he can be indicted for tax evasion. The man endured an onslaught of deranged examination, fake news and continuous slurs throughout his Presidency. Yet President Biden's son, Hunter, is seemingly above the law with no investigation of his ties to China and the millions of $$$ reaped by him and "the big guy."

Although it's obvious to rational thinkers, the blind acceptance of a year of riots, looting and burning by Antifa, the only investigations and prosecutions have been the supposed Trump-conservatives who entered the Capitol on January 6. Even those who were arrested in Portland and Minneapolis were let out of jail free.

The entire white population of America has been branded "racists" by those who wish to divide and conquer our great country and sell whatever is left to China.

Trump reduced taxes, secured our southern border, created opportunity zones in inner cities. He showed his love for America every day. He readily engaged with the media and answered even the most disdainful questions. Biden hid in a basement and let the media run his campaign, answered no questions and hasn't bothered to hold a press conference.

Finally, some good news! DC Circuit Court Senior Judge Laurence Silberman engaged in what Fox News described as an "unprecedented written tirade" against the mainstream media. And "The increased power of the press is so dangerous today because we are very close to one-party control of these institutions," wrote Silberman, appointed to the bench by President Ronald Reagan in 1985. God bless this man for his courage to call out the media as the "Democratic Party trumpet." As we all know, one party rule seldom benefits the populace but seems to enrich the elite at the expense of the working class.

Republicans do have strong leaders in Matt Gaetz, and Lauren Boebert, who are fearless. Now we have to get rid of the RINOs who ignore Republican values. We've heard many times that "this is the most critical election of our lifetime; this time it's true. We can see what Biden has already done to destroy all progress Trump made at the border to control human trafficking and illegal immigration; to reduce taxes; increase the strength of our military; stand up to Russia and China. Biden has already insulted Putin and made snarky comments about China. His first 100 days have been a disaster for us. If everyone does something, we will survive. Now is not the time to sit back and wait for the final hammer to drop. Is it?

Message from our President

Hello Patriots,

HILLSDALE COLLEGE is one of the few remaining CONSERVATIVE COLLEGES in AMERICA. Since I am one of their contributors I am on their distribution list. That said, I would highly recommend you open below link and, if you hadn't, purchase the book 1984 by GEORGE ORWELL. I only remember excerpts so, I went on e-bay and purchased the book, I need to be enlightened again. Sadly nobody took Mr. Orwell seriously when he wrote his book.

Have a wonderful weekend and God bless.

Our Government is Back to Normal

Gas is up $1, we are bombing the Middle East again and thousands of jobs are lost.

Our borders are open to Covid-19 illegals, toy potato heads are offensive, Dr. Seuss has been banned, Coca Cola needs employees to be less white and taxpayers are paying for foreign abortions.

The military is paying for sex changes and lesbians and trannies are being promoted to generals.

Thank God we are finally rid of the guy who wrote mean tweets and who dared to put America and Americans first! NOT!

Uh oh! Wa-Po had to TELL THE TRUTH!

Correction: Two months after publication of this story, the Georgia secretary of state released an audio recording of President Donald Trump's December phone call with the state's top elections investigator. The recording revealed that The Post misquoted Trump's comments on the call, based on information provided by a source. Trump did not tell the investigator to "find the fraud" or say she would be "a national hero" if she did so. Instead, Trump urged the investigator to scrutinize ballots in Fulton County, Ga., asserting she would find "dishonesty" there. He also told her that she had "the most important job in the country right now." A story about the recording can be found here. The headline and text of this story have been corrected to remove quotes misattributed to Trump.

If you can believe it, the Washington Post getting it wrong isn't the most scandalous thing about this episode in media malfeasance. No, the most scandalous thing is: Several newsrooms claimed they independently "confirmed" the most damning details of the Washington Post's since-corrected "scoop."

NBC News reported it "confirmed The Post's characterization of the Dec. 23 call through a source familiar with the conversation."

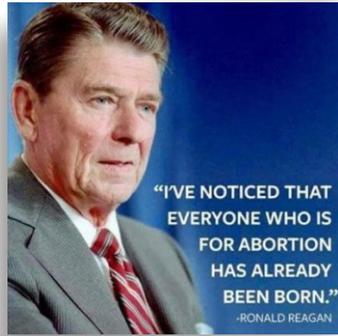

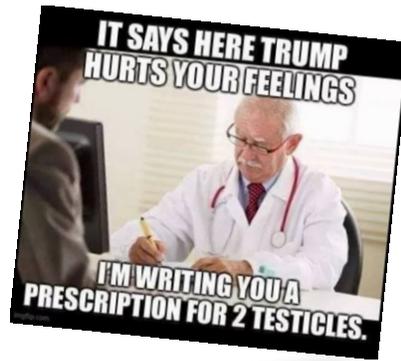

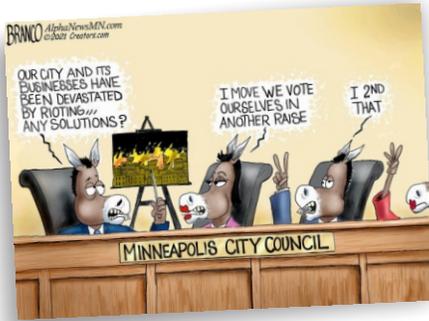

USA Today claimed a "Georgia official speaking on the condition of anonymity to discuss internal matters confirmed the details of the call."

ABC News reported: "President Donald Trump phoned a chief investigator in Secretary of State Brad Raffensperger's office asking the official to 'find the fraud' and telling this person they would be a 'national hero' for it, an individual familiar with the matter confirmed to ABC News."

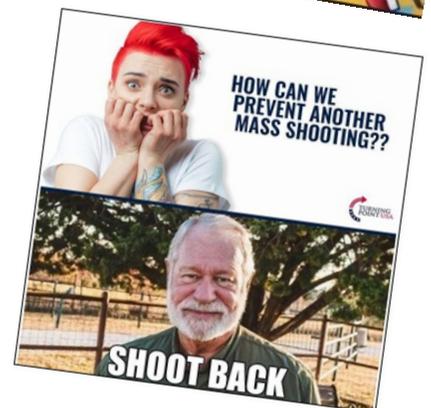

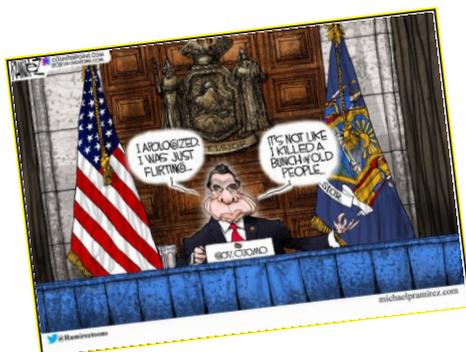

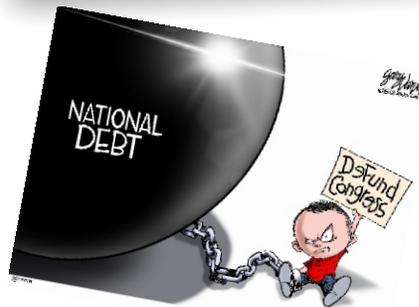

PBS NewsHour and CNN likewise seemingly claimed they independently "confirmed" the story through their own anonymous sources.

But Trump never said those things. The sources either were mistaken or lying.

Ignoring evidence of election fraud because the election is already over is like ignoring a murder because the victim is already dead!

One crisp winter morning in Sweden, a cute little girl named Greta woke up to a perfect world, one where there were no petroleum products ruining the earth. She tossed aside her cotton sheet and wool blanket and stepped out onto a dirt floor covered with willow bark that had been pulverized with rocks. "What's this?" she asked.

"Pulverized willow bark," replied her fairy godmother.

"What happened to the carpet?" she asked.

"The carpet was nylon, which is made from butadiene and hydrogen cyanide, both made from petroleum," came the response.

Greta smiled, acknowledging that adjustments are necessary to save the planet, and moved to the sink to brush her teeth where instead of a toothbrush, she found a willow, mangled on one end to expose wood fibre bristles.

"Your old toothbrush?" noted her godmother, "Also nylon."

"Where's the water?" asked Greta.

"Down the road in the canal," replied her godmother, "Just make sure you avoid water with cholera in it"

"Why's there no running water?" Greta asked, becoming a little peevish.

"Well," said her godmother, who happened to teach engineering at MIT, "Where do we begin?" There followed a long monologue about how sink valves need elastomer seats and how copper pipes contain copper, which has to be mined and how it's impossible to make all-electric earth-moving equipment with no gear lubrication or tires and how ore has to be smelted to a make metal, and that's tough to do with only electricity as a source of heat, and even if you use only electricity, the wires need insulation, which is petroleum-based, and though most of Sweden's energy is produced in an environmentally friendly way because of hydro and nuclear, if you do a mass and energy balance around the whole system, you still need lots of petroleum products like lubricants and nylon and rubber for tires and asphalt for filling potholes and wax and iPhone plastic and elastic to hold your underwear up while operating a copper smelting furnace and . . .

"What's for breakfast?" interjected Greta, whose head was hurting.

"Fresh, range-fed chicken eggs," replied her godmother. "Raw."

"How so, raw?" inquired Greta.

"Well, . . ." And once again, Greta was told about the need for petroleum products like transformer oil and scores of petroleum products essential for producing metals for frying pans and in the end was educated about how you can't have a petroleum-free world and then cook eggs. Unless you rip your front fence up and start a fire and carefully cook your egg in an orange peel like you do in Boy Scouts. Not that you can find oranges in Sweden anymore.

"But I want poached eggs like my Aunt Tilda makes," lamented Greta.

"Tilda died this morning," the godmother explained. "Bacterial pneumonia."

"What?!" interjected Greta. "No one dies of bacterial pneumonia! We have penicillin."

"Not anymore," explained godmother "The production of penicillin requires chemical extraction using isobutyl acetate, which, if you know your organic chemistry, is petroleum-based. Lots of people are dying, which is problematic because there's not any easy way of disposing of the bodies since backhoes need hydraulic oil and crematoriums can't really burn many bodies using as fuel Swedish fences and furniture, which are rapidly disappearing - being used on the black market for roasting eggs and staying warm."

This represents only a fraction of Greta's day, a day without microphones to exclaim into and a day without much food, and a day without carbon-fibre boats to sail in, but a day that will save the planet.

Tune in tomorrow when Greta needs a root canal and learns how Novocain is synthesized.

Just some facts about the Keystone pipeline.

The Keystone pipeline upon completion would carry more than 800,000 barrels or 33.6 million gallons of oil through the pipeline per day. With no harmful emissions. A Barrel of Oil is 42 gallons, not to be confused with a Drum which is 55 gallons. Because a gallon of oil weighs between 7.5 and 7.8 lbs. per gallon, most trucks can't carry but up to 130 barrels of oil at a time without violating our department of transportation laws of 80,000 lbs. on our roadways. That's truck and cargo weight, It would take 6,154 more trucks going just from Canada to the Gulf Coast for that same oil and that's every single day.

Now a rail car holds approx. 30,000 gallons or 700 barrels. It would take trains every day pulling 1,143 more rail cars per day. just pulling the oil from that pipeline from Canada to the Gulf Coast. Trains and Trucks emitting more emissions and burning more fuel that would be eliminated by the pipeline. So when they tell you this is about the environment, it is not; that would be a lie. Just thought you should know.

That said, one cannot discount the reason for all this:

Fact of the matter is, Biden and his cronies are just hell bent on destroying our REPUBLIC.

We've had our young folks sent to fight every WAR imaginable, God help us, we lost the big one right here at home. The election was stolen and the silence is deafening!!

Where the hell are our elected "Conservative Republican Legislators"?!?!

~ Kaye Walker, President ~ Republican Club of SE Volusia County

On March 12, first-term congresswoman Marjorie Taylor Greene (R-GA) introduced the Protect America First Act to resolve the growing crisis. The bill contains a range of measures that might not be popular with Democrats but would make a real difference to the flood of illegals that are swamping our border. Marjorie Taylor-Greene's proposals include a four-year immigration freeze, completing the border wall (and naming it after President Trump), and cutting off federal funding for so-called "sanctuary cities." She also wants to give ICE more powers to detain and deport violent foreign criminals, reduce the deportation time for illegals from 90 to 30 days, and revoke the Deferred Action programs that let illegals stay in the US. Right now, Congress has surrounded itself with a bigger fence than we have at the border. Greene has already slammed her fellow representatives for that; now she's trying to fix the immigration problem Biden has created. Good for her!

Judge torches 'dangerous' media for 'shocking' bias; 'NY Times, WaPo virtually Dem Party broadsheets'

A federal appeals court judge ripped major media outlets for bias in an otherwise little-known case involving libel.

D.C. Circuit Court Judge Laurence Silberman's ruling dealt with a case involving a 2018 report from Global Witness Publishing accusing Christiana Tah and Randolph McClain, both Liberian government officials, of taking bribes from Exxon. The two officials filed suit against the publisher claiming they were defamed. Silberman dismissed the case on Friday.

But in his partial dissent, Silberman engaged in what Fox News described as an "unprecedented written tirade" against the mainstream media, writing that the Supreme Court ought to revisit its landmark New York Times v. Sullivan ruling from 1964 that gave the press extensive protections under the First Amendment against lawsuits filed by public officials.

"[N]ew considerations have arisen over the last 50 years that make the New York Times decision (which I believe I have faithfully applied in my dissent) a threat to American Democracy," he writes. "It must go."

"The increased power of the press is so dangerous today because we are very close to one-party control of these institutions," wrote Silberman, appointed to the bench by President Ronald Reagan in 1985.

He went on to blast the media for its "shocking" bias against Republicans in general.

"Although the bias against the Republican Party—not just controversial individuals—is rather shocking today, this is not new; it is a long-term, secular trend going back at least to the '70s," Silberman, who has been a senior judge on the D.C. Circuit since 2000, noted further.

"Two of the three most influential papers (at least historically), The New York Times and The Washington Post, are virtually Democratic Party broadsheets. And the news section of The Wall Street Journal leans in the same direction," the judge continued.

"The orientation of these three papers is followed by The Associated Press and most large papers across the country (such as the Los Angeles Times, Miami Herald, and Boston Globe). Nearly all television—network and cable—is a Democratic Party trumpet. Even the government-supported National Public Radio follows along," he added.

Silberman also ripped Big Tech, which he accused of skewing news coverage "in ways favorable to the Democratic Party" while also employing censorship of disparate viewpoints and information. He referenced social media platforms' ban of the New York Post's explosive pre-election reports providing sordid details of contents found on a laptop abandoned at a Delaware computer repair show by Hunter Biden.

"It is well-accepted that viewpoint discrimination 'raises the specter that the Government may effectively drive certain ideas or viewpoints from the marketplace,'" Silberman wrote. "But ideological homogeneity in the media—or in the channels of information distribution—risks repressing certain ideas from the public consciousness just as surely as if access were restricted by the government."

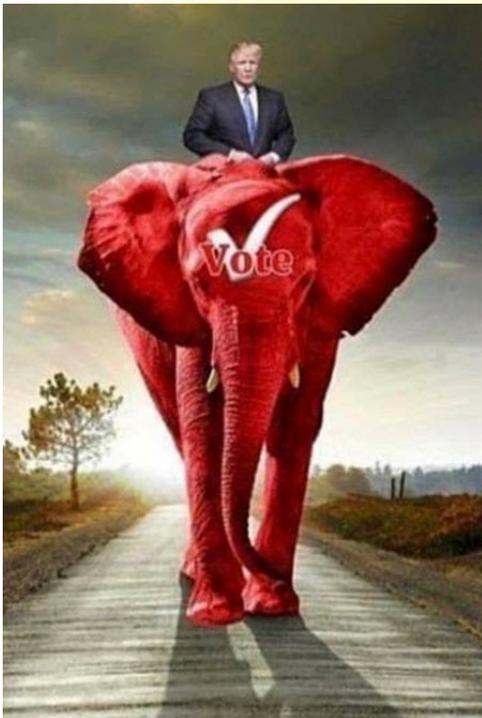

The appeals judge went on to cite recent "serious efforts to muzzle" news organizations like Fox News that do not fall under "Democratic Party ideological control."

"It should be borne in mind that the first step taken by any potential authoritarian or dictatorial regime is to gain control of communications, particularly the delivery of news. It is fair to conclude, therefore, that one-party control of the press and media is a threat to a viable democracy," Silberman continued. "It may even give rise to countervailing extremism."

He added: "The First Amendment guarantees a free press to foster a vibrant trade in ideas. But a biased press can distort the marketplace. And when the media has proven its willingness—if not eagerness—to so distort, it is a profound mistake to stand by unjustified legal rules that serve only to enhance the press' power."

America just made another historic first thanks to the amazing presidency of Donald J. Trump. From February 9, 2020 until February 9, 2021, there were no flag-draped US coffins flown back from Afghanistan to America. For the first time since the war in Afghanistan began, we had a full year go by with no American troops being killed over there. Thank you, President Trump!

I met a Magical Fairy yesterday who said she would grant me one wish.

"I wish to live forever,"

I said.

"I'm

sorry," said the Fairy,

"That is the only wish that I'm not allowed to grant."

"Fine," I said, "Then I want to die the day after Congress is filled with honest, hard-working, bipartisan men and women who act only in the people's best interests!"

"You crafty little bastard," replied the Fairy.

They said WHAT???

"I wouldn't be surprised if we start quartering soldiers in the committee hearing rooms," said freshman Rep. Lauren Boebert of Colorado, who dubbed the Capitol complex "Fort Pelosi."

"On the issue of school reopenings," California Gov. Newsom said that "about 9,000 of the state's roughly 11,000 schools are either open now or have a 'firm date' to reopen, and that the billions of dollars in state and federal aid recently approved should help ensure that schools can offer summer programs and other supplemental learning to make up for lost time," KQED added. The far-left Untied Teachers of Los Angeles has still refused to return to the in-person classroom instruction, however.

"They (Kerry Kennedy and Andrew Cuomo) were living separate lives, but for six months Andrew refused to leave the house or respond to her lawyers. On more than one night during that period, Kerry slept in a locked bathroom, according to a source close to the family, who recounted instances of physical abuse. 'I've been a human rights activist, and for women who have abusive husbands,' Kerry told a friend, 'and here I am enduring this abuse.'"

"The troubling issue of when to send kids back to school will have melted in the summer sun when all school age children will be on summer holidays. But continuing to confuse them about their genders will pick up again come September.

"The Democrats still haven't figured out that people will never be what the government wants them to be, but will always be what God Almighty made them to be—daughters and sons made in His image.

"While waiting for the miraculous turn around on July 4th, retire your MAGA cap for now and replace it with the reality in which we now all live, the one that begs to 'Make America Sane' again. — Judi McLeod, CanadaFreePress.com

Former President Trump's net worth plummeted $700 million while he was in office, falling from $3 billion to $2.3 billion according to an analysis done by Bloomberg News.

Factors that contributed to the losses include an aging portfolio, the pandemic, and the harm done to Trump's brand due to the Jan. 6 Capitol riot. Attacks from the left against Trump have also taken their toll on his business empire.

Reuters: "Reparations is the public policy prescription that addresses - and redresses - systemic racism," said Ron Daniels, who oversees the National African American Reparations Commission, which consulted with Evanston on its proposal.

Special Presidential Envoy John Kerry @ClimateEnvoy "Feels like there's some St. Patrick's day "malarkey" afoot on Twitter. Let's be clear: If I dropped my mask to one ear on a flight, it was momentary. I wear my mask because it saves lives and stops the spread. It's what the science tells us to do".

Over at The Root, a far-left magazine ostensibly geared toward the black community, a contributor who also writes for The New York Times and has books featured on Amazon published a blatantly racist piece titled "Whiteness Is a Pandemic."

In the piece, Damon Young automatically assumed the shootings were committed because of anti-Asian hatred and then used this unsubstantiated assumption to blame the actions on former President Donald Trump, Trump supporters and all white people.

ICYMI: Republicans Fight Back

Republicans are finally wising up and using the left's own tactics against them. Just as the left used countless lawsuits to stymie President Trump's executive orders, red states are doing the same to counter President Biden's flurry of radical, destructive EO's.

Wednesday, 21 state Attorneys General, led by Texas and Montana, filed a federal lawsuit accusing Biden of overstepping his authority by canceling the Keystone XL Pipeline project.

The lawsuit argues that by unilaterally canceling the project and voiding agreed-upon interstate and international contracts, Biden usurped the power to regulate international and interstate commerce that the Constitution reserves solely to Congress. He also violated the rules set by Congress for what actions the President may take regarding the Pipeline. In addition, by doing this under the auspices of his global climate initiatives, he is illegally altering US domestic policy with the intention of conducting foreign policy.

They also point out, just incidentally, that there isn't even a real environmental justification to canceling the Pipeline beyond virtue-signaling to the environmentalist lobby. As I wrote here before, the oil still has to get to the refineries somehow, and if it's not flowing through a carbon-neutral pipeline, it will have to be transported by diesel trains with the pollution equivalent of adding over 400,000 new cars to the highways.

I'm not a lawyer, but that sounds a lot more solid than some of the cases that hamstrung Trump, like arguing that he had no power to enforce immigration laws that had been on the books for years.

Also joining in the legal battle: Ohio's Attorney General is suing the Administration to overturn the part of the $1.9 trillion "COVID-19 relief" bill that bars states that accept relief funds from lowering taxes. The case claims that infringes on Ohio's sovereign authority to set its own tax rates.

I hope there will soon be many more such lawsuits, from states, conservative legal groups, individuals, churches and any other entities that care about preserving America from the aggressive and out-of-control left. If the unconstitutional HR1 Legalizing Vote Fraud Act makes it past the Senate, I trust that the lawsuits to throw it out are already prepared for filing the second Biden signs it.

But hey, what does he know? I'm sure the techies that Facebook and Twitter hire to censor posts that mention the "Wuhan flu" know far more about this subject than he does.

Twelve reasons why I voted Democratic

Dear Editor:

Here are the 12 reasons I voted Democratic:

1. I voted Democratic because I love the fact that I can now marry whatever I want. I now may marry my Labrador.

2. I voted Democratic because I believe oil companies' profits of 4% on a gallon of gas are obscene but the Government taxing the same gallon of gas at 15% isn't.

3. I voted Democratic because I believe the Government will do a better job of spending the money I earn than I would.

4. I voted Democratic because Freedom of Speech is fine as long as I agree with what is said & nobody else is offended by it.

5. I voted Democratic because I'm way too irresponsible to own a gun and I know that my local police are all I need to protect me from murderers and thieves.

6. I voted Democratic because I believe that people who can't tell us if it will rain on Friday can tell us that the polar ice caps will melt away in 10 years if I don't start driving a Prius.

7. I voted Democratic because I'm not concerned about millions of babies being aborted so long as we keep all death row inmates alive.

8. I voted Democratic because I think illegal aliens have a right to free health care, education and Social Security benefits, and we should take away the Social Security from those who paid into it.

9. I voted Democratic because I believe that businesses should not be allowed to make profits for themselves. They need to break even and give the rest away to the government for redistribution as the Democrats see fit.

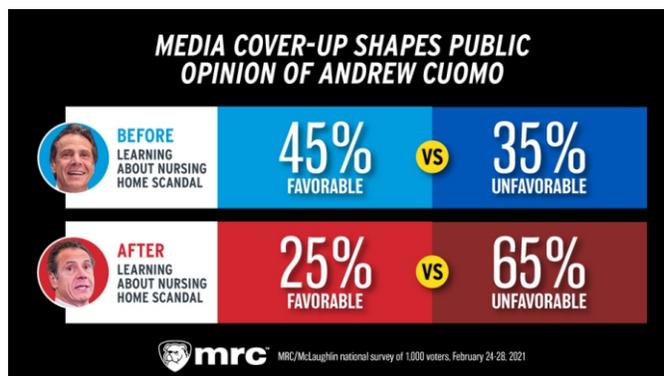

10. I voted Democratic because I believe liberal Judges need to rewrite the Constitution every few days to suit some fringe kooks who would never get their agendas past the voters.

11. I voted Democratic because I think that it's better to pay billions for their oil to people who hate us but not drill our own because it might upset some endangered beetle, spotted owl, gopher or fish.

12. I voted Democratic because my head is so firmly misplaced toward the south end of my body; it's unlikely that I'll ever have another point of view.

HOW THE LEFT STOLE READING

(a parody of HOW THE GRINCH STOLE CHRISTMAS)

Every kid down in Kidville liked reading a LOT
But the Left, who controlled education, did NOT!
They wouldn't say why, but we all know one reason:
To read the wrong book means you're guilty of treason

They also just hated the folks on the Right
They said we're oppressors — at least, if we're white
But I think that the most likely reason of all
May have been that their brains were two sizes too small

Whatever the reason, their brains or their hate
They cancelled the books that they deemed out of date
They stared at the kids from their i-vory tower
While focusing all of their brainwashing power

“We can't let them read Dr. Seuss!” they'd exclaim
We have to get started erasing his name
We'll target six books with some troublesome art
While keeping in mind that it's only the start

“Kids LOVE Dr. Seuss!” said the folks on the Right
They knew they were facing a censorship fight
“He taught children how to be loving and kind
And how they could grow up to be 'color-blind”

“Color-blind??!” screamed the left, their eyes practically bleeding
We MUST find a way to keep children from reading!

To think, the un-wokeness their minds could retain They're reading the Bible! They're reading Mark Twain!

“And old Dr. Seuss, he's the worst of the lot
If kids want to read him, we'll say they must NOT!
We'll say he's a bigot and lacks credibility
And give all the children that book WHITE FRAGILITY

“We'll find all the books that aren't focused on race
And gather them up, and we'll hide them someplace
We'll substitute books that reflect our obsession
With transgender studies and racial oppression

The kids down in Kidville would all cry boo-hoo
When they found out what leftists decided to do
The fun books were gone, and they felt really sad
The white kids were taught they deserve to feel bad

But parents arose, they had had quite enough
They fought for their kids, and it got pretty rough
They went to the School Board, and all had their say
And their courage and heart grew three sizes that day!

They brought back the books that the left had rejected
And made sure that freedom of speech was protected
The books were all safe and were put to good use
And we, ourselves, honor the ones...by...Dr. Seuss!

To vote in Mexico every eligible Mexican citizen has to have a tamper-proof photo-ID card with a thumbprint and an embossed hologram. All citizens are required to personally enroll and show proof of birth or citizenship. Applicants are required to personally return to collect their voting credential.

So how is it that we can't upgrade to Mexican standards without being called racist? Maybe it's because one political party is dependant on voter fraud.

Questions to Determine Whether a Friend or Relative Is a Liberal or a Leftist

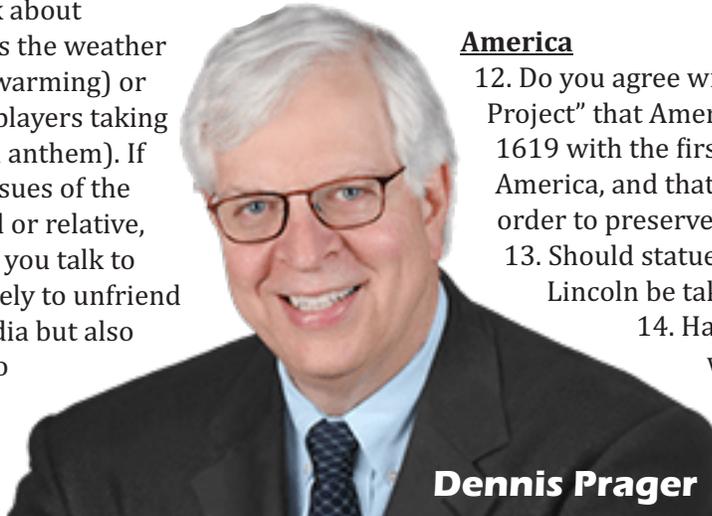

The great tragedy of our time is that liberals vote left. Virtually every value liberals have held for a century is now held by conservatives and scorned by leftists. Therefore, America, in serious jeopardy of being lost, will be saved when people convince the liberals in their life that the left, not the conservative, is their enemy.

This process begins by establishing whether a friend or relative is a liberal or a leftist. If it turns out that he or she is a liberal, it is worth engaging in respectful dialogue on the issues of the day. If the friend or relative is a leftist, you can probably only talk about innocuous subjects such as the weather (though not about global warming) or sports (though not about players taking a knee during the national anthem). If you talk about the great issues of the day with a left-wing friend or relative, that could be the last time you talk to each other. He or she is likely to unfriend you not only on social media but also in life. Leftists generally do not dialogue; they dismiss.

Here are questions you might want to pose to friends/relatives to determine — as much for them as for you — whether they are liberal or left.

Race

1. Many universities now have all-black dormitories, and some have all-black graduation exercises. Do you support these developments?
2. The University of California has declared this statement racist: “There is only one race — the human race.” Do you agree with the University of California, or do you agree with the statement?
3. Is the goal of being “colorblind” — doing one’s best to ignore a person’s color and concentrating only on the person’s character and personality — a noble goal or a racist one?
4. Do you believe the color of a person’s skin tells you anything of importance about that person?
5. Do you agree that all white Americans are racist?
6. If your answer is yes, would you tell the millions of blacks in Africa and the Caribbean who wish to emigrate to America that they would be making a poor decision? If not, why not?
7. Is it possible for a black person to be a racist?

Dennis Prager

8. Is it racist to claim that Johann Sebastian Bach, Ludwig van Beethoven and Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart composed the greatest music ever composed?
9. Is the national anthem racist?
10. If your answer is yes, what would you like to put in its place?
11. The English Department at the University of Pennsylvania removed its painting of William Shakespeare because he was a white European male. Do you agree with that decision?

America

12. Do you agree with The New York Times’ “1619 Project” that America was not founded in 1776 but in 1619 with the first arrival of black slaves in North America, and that the Revolutionary War was fought in order to preserve slavery?
13. Should statues of George Washington and Abraham Lincoln be taken down?
14. Has the United States, overall, made the world a better place?
15. Would America be better, worse, or the same as now if all Americans dropped their religion and became secular?
16. Has capitalism been a net-plus for America and the world?
17. Everyone would like to improve America. Some would like to, in their words, “fundamentally transform” it. Would you?
18. Could a good person have voted for Donald Trump in 2020?
19. Do you believe that CNN, The Washington Post, The New York Times and the rest of the mainstream media are biased toward the left or try to present the news as accurately as possible?
20. Should America have full control over its borders to prevent illegal immigration?
21. There are between 11 and 30 million people in America who entered the country illegally. Should they all be put on a path to citizenship?
22. Should those who enter America illegally be called “undocumented immigrants” or “illegal immigrants”?
23. Do you believe police departments should be defunded, or at least have their budgets severely cut?
24. Should the government provide vouchers to enable parents to choose what school their child attends?
25. Which school do you believe is more likely to be attacked by a gunman: one that has a sign in front that reads, “Gun-

Do You Agree?

I Never Cared ...

I never cared ...

if you were "gay" or whatever acronym you chose to call yourself, until you started shoving it down my throat.

what color you were, if you were a good person, until you started blaming me for your problems.

about your political affiliation, until you started to condemn me for mine.

where you were from in this great Republic, until you began condemning people based on where they were born and the history that makes them who they are.

if you were well off or poor, because I've been both ... until you started calling me names for working hard and bettering myself.

if your beliefs are different than mine - until you said my beliefs are wrong.

if you don't like guns, until you tried to take my guns away.

Now ... I care. I've given all the tolerance I have to give.

This is no longer my problem. It's your problem. You can still fix it. It's not too late. But it will be. Soon.

I'm a very patient person at times. But I'm out of patience.

There are literally tens of millions of people just like me that are sick and tired, of all your Anti-American crap !

I've always cared about life, and all lives, but now you try to force the notion on me and my other fellow citizens and patriots that certain lives matter more than others.

You protest, riot, attack, burn and loot.

Your so-called "movement" has become a radical out-of-control bunch of thugs, criminals and anarchists who are doing harm to our country.

We have had enough! America is the greatest country on Earth, and if you don't like America then you can leave.

We are done caring about your misguided "feelings".

You don't have the right to enjoy American freedoms if you are trying to take that right away from other Americans.

Free Zone" or one that reads, "This School Has Armed Personnel"?

26. Should it be legal for a teenage girl to have her breasts surgically removed because she identifies as a male — or should there be a minimum age of 18 or 21?

27. School teachers have been told to stop calling students "boys and girls" because a student might not identify as either male or female. Do you agree with this policy?

28. Should biological males who identify as females be allowed to compete against biological females in sports?

29. Is the statement, "Men give birth" science-based?

30. Do you agree with the practice of inviting a drag queen into public libraries and elementary school classrooms to conduct a "Drag Queen Story Hour"?

Speech

31. Do you believe that free speech allows for hate speech, or should hate speech be banned?

32. If you believe hate speech should be banned, who do you believe should determine what is hate speech?

You might want to send these questions to the people in your life whose views are to the left of your own. At best, you (and they) will realize that you have more in common than either of you previously thought. At the very least, their answers will bring you both clarity. And at worst, they will explain why there is a rift between you — and why you might want to restrict communication to weather, sports, recipes and warm memories.

Is any part of this anonymous opinion REAL?

"So let me get this straight. We have a President with dementia. An ex-call girl for a Vice President. A transvestite over HHS. A President's son who is a crackhead, a human-trafficking pedophile who money laundered billions from other countries sharing half with his dad. The crackhead's buddy is the head of the DEA. The crackhead's other buddy is now in the DOJ. A guy who is sleeping with the Chinese spy is over our DHS. We are borrowing all of our money now from China. Thousands of immigrants are coming in for our jobs and Social Security Benefits. And the Democrats are still focusing on destroying a former President. Add this to the 40,000 jobs lost in the past months. Yet we are supposed to believe that Biden is pro America? You just can't make all this up. God help our children & grandchildren."

Immigration Laws For ???

Be sure to read to the bottom or you will miss the message...

1. There will be no special bilingual programs in the schools.
  2. All ballots will be in this nation's language.
  3. All government business will be conducted in our language.
  4. Non-residents will NOT have the right to vote no matter how long they are here.
  5. Non-citizens will NEVER be able to hold political office.
  6. Foreigners will not be a burden to the taxpayers. No welfare, no food stamps, no health care, or any other government assistance programs. Any who are a burden will be deported.
  7. Foreigners can invest in this country, but it must be an amount at least equal to 40,000 times the daily minimum wage.
  8. If foreigners come here and buy land, their options will be restricted. Certain parcels including waterfront property are reserved for citizens naturally born into this country.
  9. Foreigners may have NO protests; NO demonstrations, NO waving of a foreign flag, NO political organizing, NO bad-mouthing our president or his policies. These will lead to deportation.
  10. If you do come to this country illegally, you will be actively hunted and, when caught, sent to jail until your deportation can be arranged. All assets will be taken from you.
- Too strict? The above laws are the current immigration laws of MEXICO!
- If it's good for American to obey Mexican laws, then it's good vice versa.

America needs to take a long, hard look at our immigration laws and open border policy to make us safe again.

Florida State House Closed to The People but Opened to Lobbyists!

Call To Action:

You have heard it on the news and from Governor DeSantis himself...Florida is OPEN! But it's not, at least not completely. The people's house in Florida, our grand State House, is CLOSED! So why isn't our State House open? Why are we the people of Florida limited in our ability to attend committee meetings or hold office calls with the legislators about bills of interest?

Why must we complete forms to reserve a place in the committee rooms and speak in the public forums? Paid lobbyists attend meetings and have great influence over our legislators. But the average citizen is required to jump through hoops just to be heard for a couple minutes while wearing a mask. The best cases for or against legislation are fought in person, face-to-face, not via a phone call or computer screen, and not wearing a conforming and muffling mask.

ACTION:

Call, write & email, Governor Ron DeSantis, House Speaker Chris Sprowls and Senate President Wilton Simpson, along with your district legislators. Tell them Florida is to be fully open for business...no limitations or restrictions. We the people of Florida must have unfettered access to our elected employees. No registration or sign-up forms, no masks, no escorts, no passes...no limits, period! Get back to business!

Gaetz: "Everyone in DC knows that when Harris shakes Biden's hand 'she's checking his pulse'"

Is 'My Son Hunter' the Movie Joe Biden Fears Most?

Social media giants and reporters alike covered up the Hunter Biden scandal during the critical weeks before the 2020 presidential election.

It likely helped him defeat President Donald Trump.

Now, filmmaker Phelim McAleer wants to show the world what voters missed.

McAleer's next project, My Son Hunter, will detail all the sordid details behind the First Son's misadventures.

- Drug abuse
- Shady business perks
- Laptops gone wild
- Government corruption
- International wheeling and dealing

For more on My Son Hunter, see Gabriel Hays [on NewsBusters.]

The story is ripe for a Hollywood biopic, but the industry would never tell a tale that would besmirch the Biden presidency. So McAleer will tackle it ... with help from his considerable fan base.

He previously leaned on crowdfunding campaigns to fund Gosnell, FBI Lovebirds: Undercover and Ferguson. Those productions also shared narratives the press either covered up or spun to protect progressive interests.

Here's the film's official synopsis:

In My Son Hunter, we tell the story of the Biden Family Corruption through the eyes of Hunter Biden. You will be shocked by what you see on screen. You may think you know the story, but the truth is more damning than you could ever imagine!

Anyone visiting MySonHunter.com can make a tax-deductible donation to help the film become a reality. "CNN's Jeff Zucker told his journalists to spike the story so it never would be heard," co-producer Ann McElhinney says in the announcement video about the Hunter Biden scandal. "This is a story that has to come out."

The project is one of several ways right-leaning artists are working around Hollywood, an industry openly hostile to conservatives.

The Daily Wire recently introduced its first feature film, Run Hide Fight, to its subscribers. The film, which follows an empowered female student taking on school shooters, got the cold shoulder from traditional distributors.

he site also hired Gina Carano, unfairly fired by Disney, to star and produce in her own upcoming film. [Editor's Note: This reporter contributes to The Daily Wire]

Comedian Ryan Long is currently writing a film project, one that likely will reflect his nonstop mockery of the woke agenda.

Talk show host Larry Elder made a successful foray into filmmaking last year with Uncle Tom, a searing documentary that skipped theaters and VOD channels during its initial run but still proved a success.

McAleer has a long history of telling stories other filmmakers won't touch. That's particularly true with his latest project, and he 'explained why hes making My Son Hunter to The Daily Mail:

'The truth deserves to be told and it needs to be seen by as many people as possible,' McAleer continued in his statement. 'An entertaining and enjoyable movie is the best way to tell the story of the Biden family's corruption and to ensure as many people are educated about this as possible.'

'If the media won't do their jobs, we'll do it for them,' he said.
